BENEFITS OF MEMBERSHIP

- The chance to paint, draw and craft in an architect-designed modern building in 12 workshops held every week. There are regular classes for oils, acrylics and watercolours, pastels, as well as life drawing and portraiture
- Exhibit in the Gallery and other local venues where we hold regular events in Lytham and St Annes
- Sell your paintings. Our talented members produce a varied and high quality display of work which always attracts a good attendance
- Attend artist demonstrations. This offers the opportunity to learn by watching, with the chance to question the guest on techniques and develop an appreciation of other styles
- Borrow instruction books and art videos from our well-stocked library
- Make use of the framing service which can give your work a more professional look
- Keep informed about events and exhibitions and other members through our regular newsletter
- Sell your artists' greetings cards at our regular coffee mornings
- Make new friends. We are a very friendly bunch and will make you feel at home very quickly
- Enjoy social events like theatre and gallery trips, our Christmas gift fair and eagerly anticipated Christmas lunch
